Guidelines for Writing Meeting Minutes . The person writing the minutes should have the capability of doing so in real-time as the meeting progresses so that the finished product is in near-final form by meeting's end. Minutes should concentrate on results and goal-oriented actions. Good minutes are brief and to the point.

Definition and Discussion of the Minutes of a Meeting

For example, you wouldn't put a hyphen before "minutes" in the sentence "Joey showered for 15 minutes." However, it is correct to hyphenate in this case: "Joey took a 15-minute shower." Let the presence or absence of an "s" after "minute" be your guide.
